

JOHN CLARK

Mr. Clark comes from multiple years of media and marketing experience throughout Kentucky. John was an on-air television news anchor for both CBS and ABC Television Stations in Lexington, Kentucky. Mr. Clark also hosted a local morning television show called "Talk of The Town".

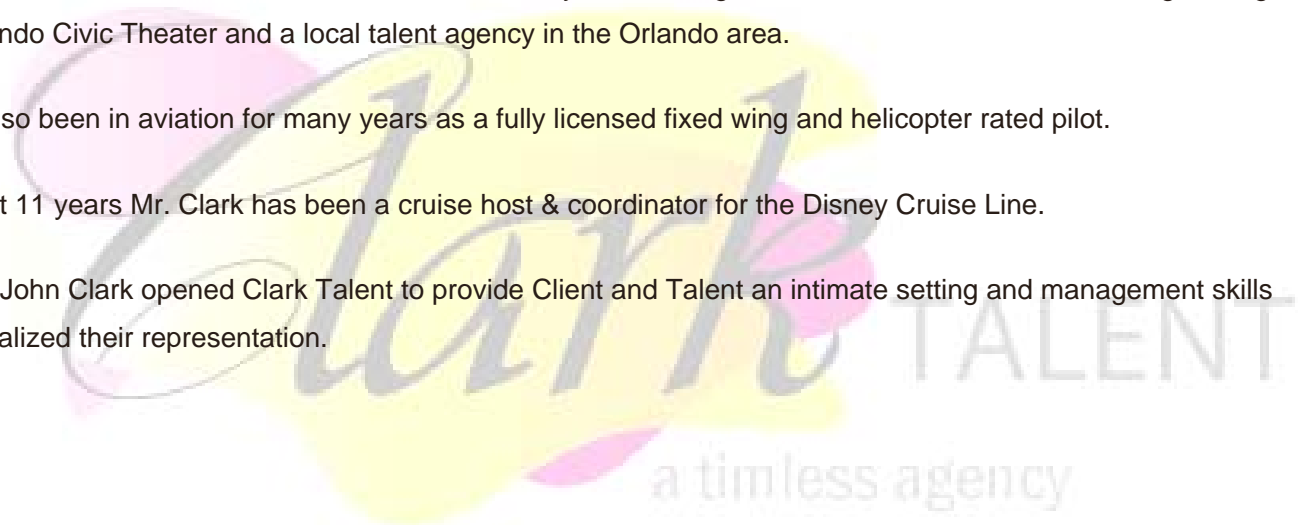

Following his media days, John acted as press secretary to two former governors of Kentucky: Governor Wendall Ford and then Governor John Y. Brown and his wife Phyllis George, the former Miss America.

After moving to Florida, John worked as a radio news anchor for WHOO-AM. Later he hosted a daily live radio program for Orlando Business Radio, WBZS, for several years. During that time, he became the marketing manager for the Orlando Civic Theater and a local talent agency in the Orlando area.

John has also been in aviation for many years as a fully licensed fixed wing and helicopter rated pilot.

For the past 11 years Mr. Clark has been a cruise host & coordinator for the Disney Cruise Line.

Nancy and John Clark opened Clark Talent to provide Client and Talent an intimate setting and management skills that personalized their representation.
